COURTS ADMINISTRATION DIVISION OVERVIEW

BACKGROUND

The period since 1990 has been one of significant change for the Ontario Court system. These changes were largely the result of the 1989 Courts of Justice Act amendments. Widely referred to as 'court reform', the new legislation had a profound impact on the way the courts were structured and managed. The Division is implementing a series of initiatives which emphasize greater use of technology, innovative service delivery options and better management of the court system.

FUNCTIONS

Courts Administration Division supports the operations of the court system of Ontario, managing more than 252 court offices across the Province, which link together litigants, counsel, police, crown attorneys and the public. The major core-business activities carried out by the division include:

- Courtroom support including the provision of courtroom clerks, registrars, court reporters, court interpreters, and jury system management;
- Court office services including counter service to the public and Bar, and maintenance of court records and files;
- Judicial support services to provincial and federally appointed judges, including the provision of secretarial services, court statistics, caseflow management and technology support;
- Corporate services including program policy development, human resources and financial management;
- Enforcement of orders in criminal matters, including fines, restitution and licence suspensions.

MAJOR BUSINESS INITIATIVES

The Division has initiated a number of Business Plan projects. These include:

- Criminal Backlog Blitz: The Division is involved with the Criminal Law Division in blitz initiatives to reduce criminal case inventories. The Division is supporting the blitz initiative by providing staffing, facilities and management information resources (i.e. statistical information).
- Family Court Expansion: A federal initiative designed to make the court more convenient and less confusing for women, children and other court users by dealing with all family law matters, including property division, support, custody, access, adoption and child protection, in one court. In addition to the original pilot site in Hamilton, the court was expanded August 1, 1995 to Kingston, Napanee, Barrie and London. Planning of next phase of expansion is currently underway.

- Civil Justice Reform: A broad review of the civil justice system in Ontario, conducted in partnership with the judiciary and the bar, aimed at providing a speedier, more streamlined and efficient court system. The final report was released in November, 1996. This project is introducing several major improvements into the Civil Justice System, including judicial case management of civil cases, early referral of General Division civil cases (excluding Family cases) to mediation, streamlining courts processes and utilizing technology to facilitate electronic filing of court documents. An electronic filing of court documents pilot project involving the participation of over 100 law firms in the Toronto area was initiated in the summer of 1997.

- The Civil Enforcement Project is introducing alternative approaches for delivering civil enforcement services by capitalizing on private sector partnerships and other opportunities. For example, the ministry will soon enter into a partnership with Teranet Land Information Services Inc. which will result in Teranet maintaining and enhancing the ministry's writs databases.

- POA Transfer: This initiative involves transferring the responsibility for the administration and prosecution of Part I and Part II and the administration of Part III of the Provincial Offences Act from the province to the municipalities as part of the Ontario Government's Who Does What initiative
